

Senior Authorised Person Training - Safe Switching of HV Power Systems

As a Senior Authorised Person, you will be responsible for others working on high voltage equipment. Gain the necessary training and experience you need to do this job safely and effectively with our Senior Authorised Person high voltage training course.

In high voltage environments, safety is essential. A Senior Authorised Person is a professional who will be responsible for the safety of themselves and others in HV areas; the Senior Authorised Person must take steps to ensure HV equipment is safely isolated and safe to work on and is ultimately responsible as a senior figure for overseeing the work of qualified competent personnel.

As a senior authorised person you will also be qualified to issue safety documents such as high voltage electrical permits to work.

Course content includes:

- Electricity at Work Regulations 1989
- Electrical Hazards and Precautions
- Arrangement of High Voltage Systems
- Operational and Safety Features of Switchgear
- Issue and Control of Safety Documentation
- Safety Lockout Procedures (Key Safes/ Multihasps)
- The Role of Protection Relays
- Emergency Conditions
- Fault Incidents
- Case Studies
- Course Review
- Practical Exercises (3 - switching, safety documents and switching programmes)
